ACTIVITY 1

Flea Circus

A flea circus was a popular street show in the 1800s. It was easy to fool the crowd! Build your own mini circus where tiny imaginary bugs are the big stars! Add moving parts for extra showbiz sparkle.

You will need: Cardboard, pens, pencils, crayons, paints

ACTIVITY 2

Animal adaptations

Animals constantly adapt to new environments. Choose a wild animal found in Britain and imagine how it might adapt to survive over the next 500 years. Draw your animal in its future home.

You will need: Pencils and paper

ACTIVITY 5

Create a Critter

Mythical creatures from folklore often have features of one or more types of real-life animal. Invent a mythical creature inspired by some of your favourite real-life animals. Draw or write about it.

You will need: Paper and pencils, any other art materials

ACTIVITY 3

Swallows in flight

Swallows are birds that fly from Africa to Scotland every Spring. Can you spot them zooming high in the sky on a sunny evening? Draw or paint them flying. Can you make a colourful sunset in the background?

You will need: Paper and pencils/paints/cut-out card

ACTIVITY 4

Wildlife Watch

Spend an hour watching wildlife you can see near home through the window or from a comfy spot outside. Stay still and quiet as you can. How many different varieties of wildlife can you see in an hour?

You will need: Pencil, Paper, Safe and comfy spot to stay for an hour
